Favorite in Chess Tourney Falls Before Lowizky of Leipsie.

Breslat, Aug. 2.—Another sensation as furnished in the international chess masters' tournament by the defeat of A.
K. Rubinstein, the Russian champion, at the hands of M. L. Lowtzky of Leipsic in the fourteenth round. This relegated Rubinstein to a tie for third place with Schlechter of Vienna, who won his game from Burn of Liverpool.

Ensily-Crump Beaten. STROUDSBURG, Pa., Aug. 2.—Winning both his matches by comfortable margins D. Bowers of Brooklawn reached the final stage of the invitation golf tournament at the Shawnee Country Club to-day. He will meet R. S. Worthington of the home club in the thirty-six hole final to-mor-

From the moment he won the first hole against Wirt L. Thompson of Huntingdon Valley in the morning Bowers always had command of the situation. He captured the first four holes and the match by 3 up and 2 to play. Later on he went out in 41 at the expense of H. E. Williams, the young Ridley Park golfer, and won by 7 Worthington did well to win in the semi-finals, when he removed George Crump of the Philadelphia Country Club, News of the death of Michael O'Sulli-van, stable manager for Peter Hauck, Jr., as a result of the accident in the hurdle race on Thursday cast a short man who won the medal in the quali-fying round. Crump was dornic playing the home hole, but cracked there, also at the extra hole when his second found the ravine.
